Dear Mr. McGinnis:

Thank you for writing.

I regret that we are unable to provide Mr. Casey's autograph. We have been flooded with requests for the Director's autograph to such an extent that it has become a serious imposition on his very busy schedule. To accommodate one requester is to be unfair to all others, which I am sure you understand.

Mr. Casey has, however, asked me to forward the enclosed photograph of him.

Sincerely,

OFFICE OF THE MEMBER

Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Director Casey:

Several of my staff members were recently admiring a copy of your Lawyers Handbook that you autographed for me many years ago and they asked me if I would contact you to determine if it would be possible for them to receive autographed pictures of the Director.

The personnel involved are Captain Matthew Wheeler, USNR, my Deputy Chief Counsel and Lee Mingledorff, my Attorney Advisor.

Each of these men carries the weight of our military impact caseload and they deeply admire the significant achievements you have accomplished at the agency.

If you could extend to them the kindness of your photograph, I know that it would be deeply appreciated.

As always, I deeply appreciate your efforts on behalf of our country, Ronald Reagan, and the conservative cause.

Kindest personal regards,
